Dear Endro,

We are delighted to notify you that you have been selected as a 2020 Ashton Award recipient. Your proposal to examine orangutan food resources in different forest conditions is important and we look forward to hearing about your research and its impact in the years to come.

As part of the requirements for the award, the Arboretum requests the following:

- 1) Write a yearly progress and/or end of award report due by December 1.
- 2) Send a yearly and/or final budget report by December 1.
- 3) Acknowledge the Arnold Arboretum of Harvard University for providing funding used in your study in all publications and presentations. We suggest the following wording "We/I would like to acknowledge the Arnold Arboretum of Harvard University for providing access to the living collections and financial support through an Ashton Award for Student Research."
- 4) Provide the Arboretum with a copy of your published work (digital or hard copy).
- 5) We strongly encourage you to write an article for our quarterly magazine Arnoldia.

This award includes a budget of $4000 as detailed in your application. Payment of the award will be made directly to you in one lump sum. Please contact Deb Smith (dsmith@fas.harvard.edu or +1-617-384-5762) from our Finance Office to arrange payment of the award.

Formalities aside, we want to congratulate you on receiving the Ashton Award and wish you the very best in your research.

Sincerely,

William (Ned) Friedman
Director of the Arnold Arboretum
Arnold Professor of Harvard University
